

CONNIE CHILTON

Senior Counsel

chilton@spcllp.com

Overview

Connie Chilton is a senior counsel of the Firm. She has extensive business-focused legal experience in commercial and specialized finance, including lender, borrower and sponsor representation in a variety of complex debt transactions.

Connie provides strategic legal advice to senior leaders in lending, private equity, funds, business and real estate. With significant acquisition, mezzanine, syndicated and securities-based lending experience, she works as a practical and collaborative partner for clients.

Her transactions include credit facilities supported by assets, including margin stock, intellectual property, fine art, and residential real estate, as well as warehouse and structured products and other leveraged finance.

Prior Experience

Prior to joining the Firm, Connie practiced as a senior counsel at Loeb & Loeb and as an associate at Sidley Austin, Bingham McCutchen and Paul Hastings.

Education

University of Virginia School of Law, J.D.

Georgetown University, B.S.F.S., International Political Economy

Bar Membership

California